

Existing testbed: a remote measurement point for bearing faults

Conceptual geometry only; no additional synchronization or measurement device

Fault label comes from the bearing specimen. The motor housing is a filtered, weaker observation.